Bringing theory into practice

Providing young artists with the skills needed to enter today's job market through the implementation of Social Laboratories and other creative activities!

2nd Transnational Partner Meeting in Greece!

The partners of the YW4CULT project held a meeting on March 1st and 2nd, 2023 in Larissa. Greece to discuss the results of the Social Laboratories and the future. The plan for Laboratories were a key component of the project and provided young people with a space to learn, share experiences, and develop innovative ideas. partners provided feedback on the activities and discussed how to improve the manual for youth workers and educators interested in implementing similar programs. They also planned the next cycle of the Social Laboratories and discussed how to disseminate the project's results further for a wider reach.

The first cycle of Social Laboratories

In February 2023, the organizations involved in the YW4CULT project began the first cycle of Social Laboratories to test the manual and its activities. The SOLABs involve an average of 15 participants from each partner organization, including young local artists, youth workers, and educators who want to develop the skills outlined in the manual. TDM 2000 Eesti, Urban Style (JJ-Street), TDM 2000, Streetbasket (Ghetto Games), and Institute of Entrepreneurship Development (iED) run the SOLABs in facilities located in Tartu, Tallinn, Cagliari, Riga, and Larissa, respectively.
