KA2 - Cooperation for innovation and the exchange of good practices KA227 - Partnerships for Creativity Project NR: KA227-A1F22344

From Talent to Competencies: How youth work can support cultural sector

NEWSLETTER

JULY 2023

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

Time to spread the project results!

June and July have been very active for our project organisation members – from "talent renaissance" to seminars and street dance festival took place in June and July, where hundreds of young people from whole Europe got acquainted with the project "YW4CULT" results and opportunities.

Estonia

In the end of June, in Tallinn nearly 100 young artists, youth workers, street dance trainers from Estonia and Ukraine in seminar "1,2,3, YW4CULT" where introduced with overall YW4CULT project and what opportunities it proposes for young people – starting with very active discussions "What is talent?", presentation of youth opportunities portal "League of Creativity networking platform" and discussions with SOLABs youth leaders, where they presented the results and finings within the SOLABs cycle.

On June 20, in Larissa – Greece was held "YW4CULT: Talents Day" where 40 Greek people, interested in the artistic sector, shared their experiences of nowadays young people in artistic sector challenges and opportunities, discussed on how talent management could better work and search for potential solutions in context of project "YW4CULT" finings and practical tools.

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

On July 7th, in Cagliari, Associazione TDM 2000 ODV held "YW4CULT: Talents conference and theatre Renascence. exhibition". Nearly 100 young Italians and foreigners from Spain, France, Germany, Poland, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Hungary, Slovakia and Serbia interested in the artistic sector were introduced presented projects results, networking platform as well as the project's objectives and path. After that some of the youth workers that took part in the SOLABs shared their experience.

In June 16, in Riga – Ghetto Games sports complex and Ghetto Dance Academy dance studio took place "Ghetto Dance meet-up" – hip hop dance competitions and project presentation, presentation of "League of Creativity". Among the audience, there were street dance trainers, dancers, students, school pupils, volunteers, former participants of the SOLABs. During the event presentation part there was presented the project's objectives, intellectual outputs and emphasize was put on networking platform for young artists "League of Creativity".

Stay tuned for updates on the activities and outcomes of the YW4CULT project and we hope you have already checked out the new opportunities' on the League of Creativity platform!

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

